

Mark 4: 1-20

Who will you ask to journey with you in this season?

Good soil

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue lines for writing. A vertical red line runs down the left side, creating a margin. The paper appears to be from a notebook or a standard sheet of stationery. There are no markings, text, or drawings on the page.

Matthew 28: 19-20, reminds us that we all have a role to play in the sowing the seeds of the Great Commission.

How are you intentionally planting seeds of the Gospel in your own life and within your context?

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Do you feel equipped to share the word of God?

I would encourage you to jump on to this app or website and having a look at how you can share your faith with others!

I would suggest having a look at the 'Knowing God Personally' resources.

During the message on Sunday, we thought about keeping ourselves moving in the direction of God, and not allowing ourselves to be pulled of course for too long. Reflect upon these suggested areas and add others that God may have revealed to you.
